

The New England Peace Studies Association Presents:
EDUCATING FOR PEACE:
Rebuilding Society from the Grassroots

A forum of workshops for students, educators, and anyone interested in or involved in Peace!

April 4, 2009, 9am – 4pm
The Peace Abbey 2 N Main Street, Sherborn, MA (508)655-2143
info@peaceabbey.org
$20 Faculty/General Public, $5 Students

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

9am – 9:30am: Registration and Coffee

9:30am: Opening Remarks and Reading

10am – 12pm: WORKSHOPS I

- PEACEMAKING IN PRACTICE: Bringing the Principles of Peace to the Workplace and Beyond [Student led dialogue]
- DEVELOPING A PEDAGOGY OF PEACE: Teaching Strategies using the Tools of Technology as a Resource [Led by Abbie Jenks, Greenfield Community College]
- ACTIVISTS AND ACADEMICS: The Nonviolence of Peacemaking [Led by Michael True, Assumption College]

Or 10am – 3pm:

- DEVELOPING THE INNER PATH TO NON-VIOLENCE: A day retreat with a focus on developing inner peace using tools of art and music. Facilitated by Lesley University

12pm – 1pm: LUNCH BREAK
Free lunch will be provided.
Options for tour or movie.

1pm – 3pm: WORKSHOPS II

- PEACE STUDIES: An Interdisciplinary Approach [Led by Fred Marchant, Suffolk University]
- LOBBYING FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF PEACE [Led by Joseph de Rivera, Clark University]
- ECOLOGICAL WISDOM AND INTEGRITY: A Critical Issue for the Contemporary Peace Movement [Led by Brian Trautman, Berkshire Community College]

3pm – 4pm: Closing with Zimbabwean Spoken Word Artists

These two spoken word artists founded a youth cultural network that uses the arts as a nonviolent tool in the struggle for justice in Zimbabwe. Their tour is set to include band performances, workshops, lectures, and discussion on the crisis in Zimbabwe.